

Biological Science Technician, St. Croix, US Virgin Islands

Position title: Permanent full-time GS-5/6/7

Agency/Location: National Park Service on St. Croix, US Virgin Islands

Salary: (<http://www.opm.gov/oca/08tables/html/gs.asp>) plus 25% tax free COLA.

Qualifications:

This position is extremely multi-disciplinary. The best candidates will have experience in advanced scientific diving, boat operation, working long/irregular hours, have physical and mental toughness to excel in both tropical terrestrial and tropical marine field conditions, and a broad range of knowledge and experience in conservation and management issues including and associated with the following:

Exotic plant and animal eradication

Mangrove restoration

Native upland restoration

Wildlife reintroduction and management

Avian management

Threatened and endangered species management

Sea turtle research and monitoring

Tropical coral reef management

Tropical fisheries management

Spiny lobster and conch management

Geology

Water and air quality monitoring

GIS

Database management

Descriptive statistical analysis

Details and application guidance at our web site:

Buck Island Reef National Monument (www.nps.gov/buis) will be seeking to hire a qualified Biological Science Technician under the Student Career Experience Program (<http://www.opm.gov/employ/students/intro.asp>)

Contact:

Ian Lundgren

Biologist-SCEP/PDO/GIS Coordinator

National Park Service

Buck Island Reef National Monument/SARI/CHRI

2100 Church St. #100

Christiansted, VI 00820

Ph. 340.773.1460 x236

Fx. 340.719.1791

<http://www.usajobs.gov/EI27.asp>